Cohiba Siglo II Cigar 42 Ring Gauge x 5". Medium Flavour, £28.00 Each

Cuban handmade cigar. The Cohiba Siglo II cigar is certainly not what we have come to expect from Cohiba and their El Liguito factory. The petit corona utilises tobacco grown in Cuba's first class plantations and goes through the fermentation process three times over the course of two years before the tobacco leaves are crafted into cigars by Cuba's master rollers, some of which have been making cigars since before the Cuban revolution! The cigar is similar to other Siglos in that it has a sweet creaminess to it along with bean flavours, however the smoke also provides a silky, oily woodiness which is uncommon for Cohiba Cigars. 30 mins smoke time

Cohiba Siglo III Cigar 42 Ring Gauge x 6 1/8". Medium - Full Flavour, £34.00 Each

Cuban handmade cigar. The Cohiba Siglo III Cigar is the standout of the other cigars in the Siglo series, with its distinctive flavours. The cigar is a corona Grande matured for two years in Cuba's most famous El Liguito factory, which is a perfect recipe for its complexity. Notes of grilled vanilla combine with spicy chocolate, deep cocoa and a drip of chilli to spice up your tastebuds before they are cooled with the taste of rich and creamy leather polymerised with a dollop of fresh cream.
